Paint strippers that may contain methylene chloride, sold by third parties:
further research needed by Walmart

- Crown Tuff-Strip aerosol
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/18-Ounce-Crown-Tuff-Strip-Heavy-Duty-Sprayable-Stripper/584216132>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride according to the aerosol SDS available from searching “Tuff-Strip” at the SDS search link here - <http://www.packserv.com/products/> - and from the warning at the bottom of this page - <http://www.packserv.com/products/crown/removers/> but the codes listed on the Walmart website aren’t consistent with the codes in the SDS for Tuff-Strip aerosol.
 - Third-party seller: Adventurer’s Bag
 - “Only 2 left”
- Jasco Premium Paint & Epoxy Remover - Aerosol
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/17-OZ-Aerosol-Paint-and-Varnish-Remover-For-All-Types-Coatings-Only-One/986633300>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride: the label does not say “NON-METHYLENE CHLORIDE FORMULA” as the reformulated version does, here, http://www.jasco-help.com/uploads/documents/EJPR502_J8846_JC_PremPaintRemover_Aero_Natl_16oz_WEB.pdf, and the older versions contained methylene chloride, according the SDS’s from these pages - <http://www.jasco-help.com/product/premium-paint-epoxy-remover-aerosol> and <http://www.jasco-help.com/product/premium-paint-epoxy-remover-aerosol-discontinued>. (Note: the manufacturer part number provided on Walmart’s page doesn’t match up with any known code on Jasco’s website.)
 - Third-party seller: Adventurer’s Bag
 - “Only 5 left”
- Jasco Premium Paint & Epoxy Remover - Canister
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Quart-Premium-Paint-and-Epoxy-Remover-Water-Rinseable-Semi-Paste-Only-One/874139925>
 - Very likely contains methylene chloride: The label shown looks the same as that of a product that contains methylene chloride according to its product page and SDS here - <http://www.jasco-help.com/product/premium-paint-epoxy-remover>. (Note: the manufacturer part number provided on Walmart’s page doesn’t match up with any known code on Jasco’s website.)
 - Third-party seller: Adventurer’s Bag
- Jasco Varnish & Stain Remover
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/QT-Paint-and-Varnish-Remover-Semi-Paste-Non-Flammable-Only-One/314380687>

- Likely contains methylene chloride: The label shown looks the same as that for a product that contains methylene chloride according to its product page and SDS here - <http://www.jasco-help.com/product/varnish-stain-remover> - and there doesn't appear to be a reformulated version. (Note: the manufacturer part number provided on Walmart's page doesn't match up with any known code on Jasco's website.)
- Third-party seller: Adventurer's Bag
- "Only 3 left"
- Klean Strip Aircraft Fiberglass Paint Remover
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Kleanstrip-FIBERGLASS-PAINT-STRIPPER/34834728>
 - Very likely contains methylene chloride according to the SDS of a product with the same manufacturer part number (GAF354) - <http://kleanstripauto.com/products/aircraft-fiberglass-paint-remover>, although the label is slightly different on this page compared with the Walmart webpage
 - Third-party seller: AutoBodyNow
 - "Only 2 left"
- Klean Strip Aircraft Remover - Aerosol
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Aerosol-Aircraft-Remover-Kleanstrip-EAR322-KLE/293876605>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride according to the SDS on the manufacturer's website for an item with the same product number (EAR322), although there's a different label - <http://www.kleanstrip.com/product/aircraft-paint-remover-aerosol> - and the name is Aircraft Paint Remover, as opposed to "Aircraft Remover" on Walmart's webpage
 - Third-party seller: Lionparts
 - "Only 2 left"
- EXACT PRODUCT PREVIOUSLY IDENTIFIED; NOT YET REMOVED - Klean Strip Klean Kutter Refinisher (name according to image)
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Klean-Strip-QT-Kleen-Kutter-Liquid-Paint-Remover-Use-On-Varnish-Polyur-2PK/658195834>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride: This webpage shows a label that looks old, but the newer version with same manufacturer part number (QKK5.1) has methylene chloride according to the SDS available at: <http://www.kleanstrip.com/product/klean-kutter-refinisher>
 - Third-party seller: Adventurer's Bag
 - "Only 5 left"
- Klean Strip Klean Kutter Refinisher (name according to image)
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/WM-BARR-QKK5-1-QKK5-1-PAINT-REMOVER-LIQUID-QT/23232993>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride: This webpage shows a label that looks old, but the newer version with same manufacturer part number

- (QKK5.1) has methylene chloride according to the SDS available at: <http://www.kleanstrip.com/product/klean-kutter-refinisher>
 - Third-party seller: ProMax Commerce
 - “Only 1 left” (Note: Had said “Only 2 left” on March 12)
- Klean Strip Premium Sprayable Stripper
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Klean-Strip-QT-Sprayable-Paint-Stripper-Only-One/608585367>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride because it has the same name as a product with methylene chloride - <http://www.kleanstrip.com/product/premium-sprayable-stripper> - and the image shown doesn’t specify: “NON-METHYLENE CHLORIDE FORMULA” as is the case for the reformulated version here - <http://www.kleanstrip.com/product/klean-strip-premium-sprayable-stripper-non-methylene-chloride>. (Note: the manufacturer part number (QKS221) on Walmart’s website doesn’t seem to match up with a Klean-Strip product - but they may have just left off a number by accident.)
 - Third-party seller: Adventurer’s Bag
 - “Only 5 left”
- Klean Strip Strip-X Stripper (old label)
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Klean-Strip-QT-Brush-X-Paint-Stripper-2PK/356218283>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride: The label shown looks outdated, but the name is the same as a product that has methylene chloride according to the SDS here: <http://www.kleanstrip.com/product/strip-x-stripper>. No manufacturer part number is provided. Strip-X Stripper does not appear to have any other formulations.
 - Third-party seller: Adventurer’s Bag
- Krylon Dupli-Color Paint Stripper
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Krylon-ST100-Duplicolor-Paint-Stripper-Paint-Stripper-11-Oz-Aerosol/34872875>
 - Very likely contains methylene chloride according to the SDS for a product with the same name and item code (ST100) - <https://www.paintdocs.com/docs/webPDF.jsp?SITEID=DUPLI&prodno=ST100&doctype=SDS&lang=2> – although an image isn’t available to accompany the SDS
 - Third-party sellers: JB Tool Sales and others
 - “Only 5 left”
 - SOLD AT REDUCED PRICE
- Loctite Chisel Paint Stripper
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/CRL-Loctite-174-Chisel-174-Paint-Stripper/572181232>
 - Likely contains methylene chloride because an item with the same image sold through Walmart.com (see above) has a product number that matches an item containing methylene chloride.
 - Third-party seller: DK Hardware

- “Only 2 left”
- Permatex Paint Stripper
 - <https://www.walmart.com/ip/Permatex-80577-Decal-and-Paint-Stripper-12-oz-net-Aerosol-Can/199954963>
 - Very likely contains methylene chloride according to the SDS for a product with the same part number (80577) - <https://www.permatex.com/products/cleaners-degreasers/specialty-cleaners-cleaners-degreasers/permatex-paint-stripper/> - although the labels are slightly different.
 - Third-party sellers: 4Wheel Online and others
